LETTER FROM BRO. GOODWIN.

The following letter was tided over until after the rush of political matter: EDITOR CITIZEN:-Please allow me a month spent with relatives in Lancasspace in your valuable paper to correct a statement made under the head of "Election Surprises", in which it was stated that "Bro. Goodwin and a number of good Baptist brethren in lower Middlesex stayed away from the primary for fear they would have to vote for Tucker in the November election", only among the young but every one I do not know the source of your information, but I desire to say that the so long. statement is incorrect, and does me, as well as a number of my Baptist brethren, a great injustice. The primary came right in the midst of our annual protracted meeting at Harmony

Grove. On Tuesday afternoon, and also on Wednesday, before dismissing will take boarders the rest of season at the congregation I requested the brethren to go to the polls early Thursday morning and vote so that they would not miss the morning service, and I also urged upon them the importance of basket of fine apples Wednesday from every man voting for the best interests of his country. Thursday morning I went to the polls before breakfast and voted for Judge Mann, and met many of my "good Baptist" brethren coming from the polls. On my return home 1 met others of them going to the polls. Let me say in closing that my politi-W. K. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Virginia J. Buck, of Balimore, who wore attractively blue broadcloth, and carried bouquet of white asters. The groom wore conentional black and was attended by Mr. J. Goddard Mattingly, of St. Mary's County, Md. The bridal couple were accompanied to station by party of friends who by their copious and sincere expressions of congratulations and good wishes, attested well the popularity of the young couple, and their esteem and affection for them. Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke left Camden station over Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at 12:30 p. m. for Oakland, Md., and other resorts in the Blue Ridge mountains. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Levin T.
